ABOUT THE SCHOOL

EC High School is a co-educational private Christian college preparatory high school with 350 students in grades 9-12; and is accredited by the Eastern Christian School Association. EC High School offers a strong college preparatory program with course work that is stimulating, challenging, and rigorous. General and business programs are available for students going immediately to careers.

LOCATION

EC High School is located in North Haledon in Passaic County, New Jersey. Known for its scenic sights and outdoor sports, North Haledon is approximately 15 miles (24 km) to Newark, NJ and 19 miles (30.6 km) to New York City.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

EC High School strives to achieve academic excellence as an offering to God. Helping each student recognize the gifts that they possess and developing these gifts to the best of their ability. From general course offered to students seeking careers to advanced high school classes offered for college credit, EC High School is renowned for its exceptionally high quality, cutting edge academic programs.

Students who have exceptional academic abilities and are strongly motivated are encouraged to select accelerated courses. Students involved in accelerated work are challenged to use their talents and academic gifts for the purpose of reaching their academic potential in high school.
